Nov 04, 2021 - I think I’ve seen photos of Prince Charles’ prime cottage herd at one of his Princecey estates — or maybe it was a castle. If Charles is really serious about the need to critically change our way of living, why hasn’t he gotten rid of his cottage, and multiple outsized “homes,” airplanes, ships/yachts, etc., etc., and led the way on this “critical” change.

Alias Grace: Let’s Talk about the Ending - Vulture

Nov 13, 2017 - Alias Grace is a mystery story, and its end offers us a chance to examine what mesmerism means for its protagonist: Emily. Emily is a character that's haunted by memories from her past—memories of the orphanage where she was abused by her foster parents, the lies told to her by her mother before she disappeared, and the promise her teacher made that after Emily turned 16, she would be in a different place in the world, away from that place of pain. It's a story that's haunted by memories—memories of a past that's too painful to bear, memories that are too dark to escape. And it's a story that's haunted by ghosts—ghosts that haunt Emily, haunting her ...
