Definition and Characteristics of Neoclassical Poetry
In romantic poetry, sentiments play a vital role in writing of poetry, while in neoclassical poetry, reason and intellect are dominant elements. You might have heard about Coleridge and Wordsworth, who wrote poetry thoroughly at the impulse of their imagination. They didn’t lay emphasis on reason to compose poetry.

John Bunyan | Poetry Foundation
John Bunyan, author of the immortal allegory The Pilgrim’s Progress (1678, 1684), was born in 1628 in Elstow, England to Thomas Bunyan and his second wife, Margaret Bentley Bunyan. Not much is known about the details of Bunyan’s life; his autobiographical memoir, Grace Abounding to the Chief of Sinners (1666), is concerned with external events only as they relate to spiritual ...

Matthew Arnold | Poetry Foundation
Among the major Victorian writers, Matthew Arnold is unique in that his reputation rests equally upon his poetry and his poetry criticism. Only a quarter of his productive life was given to writing poetry, but many of the same values, attitudes, and feelings that are expressed in his poems achieve a fuller or more balanced formulation in his prose.

Wolf snake moan - a poem by Iff Ur Abs - All Poetry
Dec 02, 2021 · Wonderful metaphors always, but I especially like the opening line that feels like a cry for release, in this case creativity or expression. At least, that's what I take from this poem. Love your muse as "a blonde bunny rabbit." For some reason I always saw mine as some sexy lady, but she's a brunette. Go figure. Lol.
